

Al youssef company, one of the largest manufacturer&

export of Egyptian marble in the middle east , we own several quarries of finest Egyptian materials distributed allover Egypt.

Al youssef factory has the latest worlded machinery producing high quality consistent products that penetrated all international markets with huge quantities and fast delivery.

Al youssef quality control management applies strict rules in selecting best materials from our own quarries passing by processing end products that capture your desire with affordable prices.

Al yossef built good reputation & customer satisfaction among international famous companies in marble industry allover the world.

Business dates back to 1957 when Al youssef marble was first established as a private factory by group of stock holders who have considerable experience in the marble processing and fixing business. Throughout its years of operation, Al youssef marble added considerable accumulative experiences in areas such as quarrying manufacturing, research and development shipping, international trade.